

AgNews

DELAWARE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
2320 South DuPont Highway, Dover, DE 19901

To: Newsroom Directors and Assignment Editors

For Immediate Release: Contact Anne Fitzgerald
June 26, 2006 800.282.8685 (DE only)
302.698.4520
302.242.4092 (Cell)

Number of pages: 1

Environmental practices for greenhouse operations

The Delaware Nutrient Management Commission recently released a booklet of Best Management Practices for greenhouse and container operations. The recommendations include practices including runoff management, collective basins, nutrient management, irrigation management and pesticide management.

Bill Rohrer, Nutrient Management Program Administrator, says, "All nutrient handlers including nursery and horticulture businesses, animal farmers and golf courses are accountable under the Nutrient Management law. We are pleased to provide educational resources to help them protect our water quality."

Anyone who would like to receive a copy may contact:

Delaware Nutrient Management Commission:

Phone: (800) 282-8685 (DE Only)
(302) 698-4500

Fax: (302) 697-6287

E-Mail: nutrient.management@state.de.us

###